“ PageTraffic, one of the most well known Organic SEO companies in the world, has been ranked as the best SEO and link building company of India. The rankings were conducted by topseos.in following a very stringent method that analyzed more than 350 companies. ”

PageTraffic, ranked as number one link building company in India, within a month of ranking as the No.2 SEO company, has given yet another proof of its aggression. A leading SEO company on an aggressive performance and expansion mode, PageTraffic continues to expand and add more clients to its already impressive clientele base in the tough period of recession. The company has also become the 28th best SEO company in the world for the month of February, 2009 by topsesos.com

Navneet Kaushal, CEO, PageTraffic said, “The ranking given by topseos.in is another addition to numerous awards and honors we have won over the years. This is a recognition of our organic White Hat methodology that has delivered the results to our clients. We believe in following deadlines and providing customized solutions, which further provides us with an edge in the industry. The embrace of technology in both implementation and reporting has also helped us in achieving high client retention rate”.

Working with high profile companies, PageTraffic is known for comprehensive services that help companies attain solid internet presence. With close to a decade of experience and running more than 650 successful campaigns, the company is still on the path of setting new standards to be followed by others.

Navneet Kaushal credits the technical expertise, ethical work practice and client centric attitude of the company for achieving continuing success. The rapid expansion in the company's client portfolio has not affected the quality of services offered and dedication of the company. The company still maintains a high ratio of experts and man hours per project as ever.
